Pfennig Bazaar Around the Corner

More than 32 years ago, the annual Pfennig Bazaar was started as a fundraiser to support both the German and American communities of Stuttgart. This German-American Women's Club-sponsored event is the largest flea market in the area. The Pfennig Bazaar will be held Oct. 8 through 12 at the Haus der Wirtschaft.

Volunteers are needed to help in the sorting rooms and run the booths. Volunteering at the bazaar offers an opportunity to support the community, develop new and lasting friendships and shop for wonderful bargains at amazing prices.

The last day for dropping off donations is Sept. 27. Donations can be dropped off at Kelley Barracks sorting room, located near the laundromat in building 3312, or at Patch Barracks sorting room, located in the basement of building 2307. Presently, volunteers are needed to sort items up until the bazaar and then on Oct. 3 to load items for transport to the bazaar. The sorting rooms are open Tuesdays and Wednesdays 9 a.m. to noon. For info contact Iris Stubblefield at 0711-719-4094 or e-mail pfennig@6asg.army.mil.
